Position Posting

Date of Posting October 29, 2024

Closing Date November 13, 2024

Position: Healing Plan Coordinator

Position Description:

The Healing Plan Coordinator functions as a member of the Eagle Woman's Lodge team in providing case management activities for residents. This includes completing follow-ups of Correctional Plans/Healing Plans. The incumbent works with residents in mutual effort, to confront and overcome those conditions that have contributed to personal difficulties and conflict with the justice system and to do so in a manner that facilitates self-awareness, self-worth and self-determination within the Indigenous context. The Healing Plan Coordinator motivates and encourages Residents to develop life skills in their community environment through such outlets as participation in programs, observing behavior or progress, and preparing reports in accordance with the case management responsibilities.

Qualification Required:

- A degree in Social Services/Criminal Justice with at least 2 years' experience and/or equivalent combination of education and work experience in a related area will be considered.
- Knowledge of Indigenous issues and culturally relevant approaches and practices are essential.
